2.4. Requirements for Completion of a Semester

2.4.1. A candidate who has fulfilled the following conditions shall be deemed to have satisfied the requirements for completion of a semester.

Ideally every student is expected to attend all classes and earn 100% attendance. However, in order to allow provision for certain unavoidable circumstances such as hospitalization / accident / specific illness, the student is expected to earn a minimum of 75% attendance.

Therefore, he / she shall secure not less than 75% of overall attendance in that semester taking into account the total number of periods in all courses attended by the candidate as against the total number of periods in all courses offered during that semester.

2.4.2. However, a candidate who secures overall attendance between 65% and 74% in that current semester due to medical reasons (prolonged hospitalization / accident / specific illness / participation in Sports events) may be permitted to appear for the current semester examinations subject to the condition that the candidate shall submit the medical certificate / sports participation certificate to the Head of the Department. The same shall be forwarded to the Additional Controller of Examinations, Anna University, Chennai for record purposes.

2.4.3. Candidates who secure less than 65% overall attendance and candidates who do not satisfy the clauses 2.4.1 & 2.4.2 will not be permitted to write the end-semester examination of that current semester and will not be permitted to go to the next semester. They will be required to repeat the incomplete semester in the next academic year.
