

DETAILS OF DEPARTMENTAL EXAMINATION

The Commission conducts the Service/Departmental Examinations prescribed for officials and officers working in various Departments of Government as well as in the local bodies, autonomous bodies, Universities, etc., twice a year as per the relevant rules, issued from time to time in this regard and under Karnataka Public Service Commission (Conduct of Service Examination) Rules, 1965.

The Departmental Examinations are conducted twice a year. Most of the examinations are conducted in all the District Head Quarters except a few, which are held at Bangalore. The State Government employees working in New Delhi and All India Service Probationers are allowed to appear at Karnataka Bhavan, New Delhi and at Lalbahadur Shastri Academy of Mussorie.

The Commission conducts the service examinations in accordance with such syllabus specified in any general or special orders of the Government. The time and date of holding the examination is determined by the Commission.

The Commission publishes a notification two months prior to the date of holding examination calling for applications. A newsitem, indicating the publication of result, date of next examination, the last date to submit the applications and such other particulars are also published in two major daily news papers having wide circulation in the State.

Only for 11 subjects the examinations are conducted in conventional type with the system of central valuation. In respect of other 62 subjects, examinations are in objective multiple choice type.
