

Directorate of Distance Education
Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra
B.Ed (2– year) Programme

Assignment-I

Class – B.Ed ( Ist year)

Paper – Teaching of Social Science

Title– Microteaching: Methods and Skills

Prepared by

Mrs. Meenakshi Chahal

Assistant Professor (Education)

A. Fill in the blanks

1. Story telling method is an important_____ .
2. Discussion method demands _____.
3. Principle of group opportunities is a principle of _____ .
4. Skill of narration takes into consideration the use of _____ .
5. Probing question skill does go deep help and _____ .

B. Multiple choice questions

6. ‘ Principle of purpose’ is the principle that deals with
  - a) Project method
  - b) Survey method
  - b) Inductive method
  - d) Deductive method
7. Discussion method takes into consideration the following as
  - a) Topic understanding
  - b) Consideration of relationships
  - c) Subjectivity
  - d) Old building and monuments
8. Skill of stimulus variation takes into account as
  - a) Attracts student’s attention
  - b) Understanding about a concept
  - c) Go deep
  - d) Redirecting
9. The components of probing skills are as
  - a) Prompting and redirecting
  - b) Variation
  - c) Attention
  - d) Loud and clear tone

10. Principle of Discussion method includes

- a) Principle of active participation
- b) Inquiry approach
- c) Ask a story
- d) General understanding

C. Very short answer type questions

11. What do you mean by 'Gestures'?

12. Define the 'Skill of narration.'

13. Which method was widely used at 'Nalanda University'?

14. What are primary sources ?

15. How would you explain 'Assignment method'?