BANGALORE, INDIA

Declared as Deemed to be University under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956

SCHOOL of LAW

Christ University

Christ University is administered by its founders Carmelites of Mary Immaculate (CMI). Blessed Kuriakose Elias Chavara, a visionary educationist and social reformer of the nineteenth century founded the CMI congregation in 1831.

Christ University was formally established in July 1969 as Christ College under Bangalore University. The University Grants Commission conferred Autonomy to Christ College on October 7, 2004. It became the first College in South India to be reaccredited with A+ by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) in May 2005. The UGC identified it as an Institution with Potential for Excellence. On July 22, 2008 the Ministry for Human Resources Development, Government of India, under Section 3 of the UGC Act, 1956 declared Christ College as a Deemed to be University in the name and style of Christ University.

Christ University, a premier educational institution, is an academic fraternity of individuals dedicated to the motto of Excellence and Service. The University welcomes students from all over the world to an environment of religious harmony and secularism.
