

About Oxford Court

Oxford Court is located just behind the All Saints campus in the centre of Manchester – close to the teaching accommodation for several faculties, main University Library, administrative and Students Union building. There are also several convenience stores, banks, fast food outlets and bars close by.

This Hall accommodates 388 residents in a mixture of ensuite and two bedroom flats. Every bedroom has a free Ethernet connection.

Reception for the Hall is based in the Opal Office located in Oxford Court and is staffed 5 days a week and manned by security staff 24 hours 7 days a week. Resident Wardens provide students with pastoral support and are on duty every night between 6 pm and 8 am and throughout the weekend. The wardens are contactable via the hall reception or are available at a 'Surgery' between 6 pm and 7 pm at the Wardens Office accessible through Cambridge Hall North reception.

There is a coin-operated laundrette facility on site. There are limited Car Parking spaces available for an additional fee available via the online store.

Television Licences

If you decide to bring a television to your university accommodation study bedroom it will be necessary to purchase a licence. Your parents' licence will not cover this. As a student you may be entitled to a three months refund. Unlike the majority of the population, most students do not need the final three months of their television licence as they do not stay at University over the summer. For more information please contact 0870 241 7028 (8.30am-6.30pm)

Please note that the TV Licensing Authority carry out regular checks of residences to ensure licences have been purchased.
