

M.Ed. SYLLABUS

Draft Regulations Relating to M.Ed (Semester) (non-CSS) Course and Examinations

I. Title:

These regulations shall be called the Regulations relating to M.Ed degree Course and Examination (Semester) (non-Css)

II. Commencement:

These revised regulations shall come into force from 2003 admission onwards.

III. Duration of the Course:

There shall be two Semesters. (Semester I and Semester II). Each semester shall be of 6 months duration.

Semester I

Core papers:

Paper I:

Methods of Educational Research and Statistics

Paper II:

Advanced Educational Psychology.

Elective Papers:

(i) Techniques of Evaluation and Test Construction

(ii) Educational Technology

(iii) Teacher Education

(iv) Educational and Vocational Guidance and Counseling

In semester I, the two core papers (Paper I and PaperII) are compulsory for all candidates. Each candidate shall select any two Electives from among the four electives given.

Semester II

Core papers:Paper III:

Philosophical and Sociological Foundations of Education

Elective Papers:

Science Education

Mathematics Education

Advanced Methodology of Teaching Malayalam

Advanced Methodology of Teaching English

Advanced Methodology of Teaching Hindi

Advanced Methodology of Teaching Social Studies

Early Childhood Education

In Semester II, Core paper (Paper III), is compulsory for all candidates. Each candidate shall take one elective from among the given seven electives.

Scheme of Evaluation

The evaluation of M.Ed (Semester non-Css) has two parts, viz. End Semester Assessment (ESA) and Continuous assessment (CA). The total marks will be 100. Out of this 75 marks shall be allotted, for ESA and 25 for CA

Scheme of ExaminationSemester I

Core Papers	End Semester Maximum marks	Continuous Assessment Maximum Marks	Maximum Marks
Paper I	75	25	100
Paper II	75	25	100
Electives	75	25	100
Elective I Elective II	75	25	100
Total	300	100	400

Semester II

Core Papers	End Semester Maximum marks	Continuous Assessment Maximum Marks	Maximum Marks
Paper III	75	25	100
Electives	75	25	100
Thesis	250	--	250
Viva-voce	50	--	50
Total	450	50	500

Grand Total for Semester I and Semester II = 900 marks.