8. IITK Alumni Association Chapter activities during 2010-12

8.1. Golden Jubilee Alumni Conventions

Alumni Association celebrated the momentous Golden Jubilee of IIT Kanpur by arranging major alumni conventions/conferences across the world. There were three conventions and many chapter gatherings, led by Alumni Association of local chapters. All the conventions were immensely successful given the participation levels and action items arising from them. Director, Prof. S G Dhande, many faculty and staff members IITK attended these events in large number.

- (i) Bangalore, 19th - 20th June, 2010: The Bangalore convention was the first major convention off-campus. The theme was "Innovation Convention". It focused on "Igniting Innovation" at IITK and in the country, and Building Bridges between the alumni and their alma mater. Nearly 600 delegates from across the world, including IITK alumni, faculty, ex- faculty, families and distinguished guests from corporate, academia and government institutions attended. The convention focused on five key areas: 1. Spurring Innovation in IIT education, Next 50 Innovation Challenge,

Discussion on Vision 2020, Celebration of the achievements of 'unsung alumni heroes' and Loads of nostalgia

- (ii) Washington DC, 9th - 10th July, 2010 : The theme of the Washington, DC convention was "US-India Collaboration: KIAP and Beyond" Keeping with the spirit of the theme, the alumni convention showcased and celebrated IIT Kanpur's 50 years of contributions to the academic, industry and entrepreneurship ecosystems in India and the USA. On this occasion, IITK honored and thanked the collaborations and contributions of the US government and other institutions toward its creation and success. Looking into the future, the convention explored emerging opportunities to extend this symbiotic relationship between US and India on globalization of Education, Energy & Environment and Entrepreneurship. An event is as good as its participants make it. 'We had a very enthusiastic and energetic group of participants, from the earliest of the KIAP participants and KIAP-era Indian faculty members, to current IITK faculty members and leaders of IITK administration.
- (iii) Santa Clara, 16th - 18th July, 2010: The theme of the Santa Clara event was Reconnect! Rejuvenate! Rejoice! The evening's highlight was the announcement of Rajeev Motwani awards. The Vision 2020 panel discussion was an eye opener. A healthy discussion and presentation was followed by a Q&A session which informed the alumni about the future plans and about the need for their continued support and participation in shaping the future of IIT Kanpur.
- (iv) Hyderabad Chapter, 17th December, 2010: IIT Kanpur Alumni Association Hyderabad Chapter, which has been in existence for the last 25 years, celebrated the Golden Jubilee of the institute in a grand way on 17th December, 2010. More than 250 IIT Kanpur alumni, their family members, with a dozen of retired faculty who currently reside in Hyderabad were seen proudly networking, re-living those nostalgic memories, and celebrating the 50th anniversary of their Alma Mater at the Infotech Campus, Gachibowli, Hyderabad. 'IITians should be job creators and not job seekers' was the theme of the Hyderabad convention.
- (v) Lucknow Chapter, 18th December 2010: A grand function was organised on Saturday, 18 December at Genesis Club, Lucknow, to celebrate IIT-K Golden Jubilee. All IITK alumni residing in Lucknow were invited and many of them attended the event with their families. Apart from Mehfil-e- Khaas (a networking session), the invitees enjoyed Mehfile-e- Mausiki (Cultural Evening) a musical performance by the well known sufi singer Kavita Seth of the 'Gunja sa ek tara' fame (Movie-Wake up Sid) and her troupe. Prof Sanjay Dhande, Director, IIT Kanpur graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.
- (vi) Kanpur Chapter, 9th January, 2011: As a part of Golden Jubilee Celebrations of IIT Kanpur a Get-together of the Kanpur Chapter of the Alumni Association, IIT Kanpur was arranged on Sunday the 9th January, 2011 at 2A/244 Azad Nagar, Kanpur. The chief sponsor was Kanpur Institute of Technology, Kanpur. Many alumni along with their families from the campus and the Kanpur city enjoyed the lunch party.
